Die Löwen kommen Vladímír Palko, 2016-02-25 Wären heute die Nürnberger Prozesse? Welche Ideologie siegt im Kalten Krieg? Wussten Sie, dass der Kommunismus in Brüssel entstanden ist? Wie hat sich die kommunistische Ideologie im Westen verändert, nachdem sie im Osten begraben wurde? Gibt es heute in Europa und Amerika Christenverfolgung? Welchen Charakter haben heute im Westen christliche politische Parteien? Entsteht in der katholischen Kirche ein stiller Bürgerkrieg? Wie würde eine Weltregierung aussehen, falls sie kommt? Antworten auf diese Fragen versucht das vorliegende Buch des ehemaligen slowakischen Innenministers Vladimír Palko zu geben.

Die problematische Neuerfindung der italienischen Rechten Markus K. Grimm, 2016-02-18 Markus K. Grimm liefert eine fundierte politische Einordnung der Parteien und Repräsentanten der italienischen Rechten seit 1994 und entwirft ein Modell zur Untersuchung der Veränderung von bestehenden extremen Parteien in Parteiensystemen. In dieser archetypischen Fallstudie, einer historischen Längsschnittuntersuchung des rechten Parteienspektrums, werden am Beispiel der Alleanza Nazionale (AN) Kriterien herausgearbeitet und erprobt, anhand derer auch Entwicklungen in anderen Parteiensystemen analysiert werden können. Die radikale Veränderung der politischen Landschaft in Italien zeigt deutlicher als in anderen Ländern, welche Möglichkeitsräume sich dadurch Parteien des politischen Randes eröffnen. Die AN steht dabei idealtypisch für den Versuch der Orientierung in die politische Mitte.

Das politische System Italiens Stefan Köppl, 2007-03-15 Das politische System Italiens stellt für den ausländischen Beobachter oft ein schwer durch-schaubares Objekt dar. Zudem scheint sich Italien seit der Umstrukturierung des Parteiensystems zu Beginn der 1990er Jahre in einer Art permanenten Übergangsphase zu befinden. Diese Einführung bietet einen systematischen, verständlichen und politikwissenschaftlich gehaltvollen Überblick über alle Bereiche und Hintergründe sowie Strukturen, Prozesse und Akteure der italienischen Politik.

The “Cardiology case” - My life. My truth Maria Grazia Modena, 2016-01-28 The protagonist of the “Cardiology Case” of Modena tells her own story. At the time, 2013, of publication of this book in Italy, than two years since the beginning of the story, she was still waiting to be judged, and after being “trampled morally and professionally”, she decided to let know “her” truth publishing documents, e- mails, minutes, reports, newspaper articles, etc. concerning the “Case”.

Conceiving Kinship Monica M. E. Bonaccorso, 2009 Conceiving Kinship is an in-depth journey, the first of its kind, into how heterosexual, lesbian and gay couples using programmes of gamete donation conceptualize and make Italian kinship. It explores the provision of treatment in clinical and non-clinical settings at a time when Italy was considered the 'Wild-West' of assisted conception. This compelling study provides a new perspective on hotly debated issues in kinship studies and the modern medical technologies; it offers fresh insights into longstanding questions of cultural continuities and discontinuities in European kinship.

International Seminar on Nuclear War and Planetary Emergencies Richard C. Ragaini, 2004 The proceedings have been selected for coverage in:

European Culture Wars and the Italian Case Luca Ozzano, Alberta Giorgi, 2015-09-16 This book aims to understand the European political debate about contentious issues, framed in terms of religious values by religious and/or secular actors in 21st century. It specifically focuses on the Italian case, which, due to its peculiar history and contemporary political landscape, is a paradigmatic case for the study of the relationships between religion and politics. In recent years, a number of controversies related to religious issues have characterised the European public debate at both the EU and the national level. The ‘affaire du foulard’ in France, the referendum on abortion in Portugal, the recognition of same-sex marriages in many Western European States, the debate over bioethics and the regulation of euthanasia are only a few examples of contentious issues involving religion. This book aims to shed light on the interrelation between these different debates, as well as their broader meaning, through the analysis of the paradigmatic case of Italy. Italy summarizes and sometimes exasperates wider European trends, both because of the peculiar role traditionally played by the Vatican in Italian politics and for the rise, since the 1990s, of new political entrepreneurs eager to exploit ethical and civilizational issues. This work will be of great interest to scholars and students of a number of fields within the disciplines of political science, sociology and law, and will be useful for courses on religion and politics, political parties, social movements and civil society.

Racial Discrimination Masoud Kamali,2010-08-18 There is an institutionalized dilemma in Europe that counteracts social cohesion and stability. It is a result of the collision and incompatibility between declarations of universal values (such as human rights and democracy) and institutionalized actions which exclude and discriminate against Europeans of immigrant background and against ethnic minorities. This book analyzes the institutional patterns and politics of 'racial' discrimination in modern-day Europe. Based on a research project that has been carried out under the leadership of the author in eight European countries, Racial Discrimination seeks the answers to some of the key questions posed by the latest developments in European political and public spheres concerning immigration and the increase in xenophobic sentiments and parties. The book will appeal to all social and political scientists interested in the latest political developments in Europe and in the problems of democratic citizenship and the efforts to move toward an integrated European community.

Mi Fu Peter Charles Sturman,1997-01-01 Mi Fu was a prominent calligrapher in 11th-century China. This analysis of his work considers content and style, and examines his calligraphy within the framework of the artist's life, the Northern Song culture in which he lived and the literati theory of art he helped to formulate.

Issues for Debate in Social Policy CQ Researcher,2014-05-27 This collection of non-partisan reports focuses on 18 hot-button social policy issues written by award-winning CQ Researcher journalists. As an annual that comes together just months before publication, the volume is as current as possible. And because it's CQ Researcher, the social policy reports are expertly researched and written, showing all sides of an issue. Chapters follow a consistent organization, exploring three issue questions, then offering background, current context, and a look ahead, as well as featuring a pro/con debate box. All issues include a chronology, bibliography, photos, charts, and figures.

The Return of Berlusconi Paolo Bellucci,Martin Bull,2002 In 2001, for the first time in the history of the Italian Republic, an opposition replaced the incumbent government as a consequence of an electoral victory. In the May General Election, the center-left government was ousted and a new right-right majority came into office. It would be premature to suggest that this election represents the birth of a new Italian political system, one that will be based on an ongoing alternation in government between two coalitions and a realignment of voters and parties. Nevertheless, the second Berlusconi government — aside from the various political judgments of it - undoubtedly constitutes an institutional and political novelty. This is not just because the left-left proved unable, in the election campaign, to exploit its achievements in office when confronted with someone with undoubted (if controversial) abilities, but also because of the likely impact of the new government on policy making and Italy's economic, social and international trajectory. This edition of Italian Politics evaluates the 2001 election and impact and analyzes the electoral success of the right, the election campaign, the crisis of the left-left after the defeat, and the composition of the new parliament.

Ethics, Law and Society Jennifer Gunning, 2017-07-05 This key collection brings together a selection of papers commissioned and published by the Cardiff Centre for Ethics, Law & Society. It incorporates contributions from a group of international experts along with a selection of short opinion pieces written in response to specific ethical issues. The collection addresses issues arising in biomedical and medical ethics ranging from assisted reproductive technologies to the role of clinical ethics committees. It examines broader societal issues with particular emphasis on sustainability and the environment and also focuses on issues of human rights in current global contexts. The contributors collect responses to issues arising from high profile cases such as the legitimacy of war in Iraq to physician-related suicide. The volume will provide a valuable resource for practitioners and academics with an interest in ethics across a range of disciplines.

Managing Uncertainty Marco Giuliani, Erik Jones, 2010-11 Chronology of Italian political events, 2009 / compiled by Rinaldo Vignati -- Introduction : managing uncertainty / Marco Giuliani and Erik Jones -- Berlusconi, sex, and the avoidance of a media scandal / Stephen Gundle -- The Partito Democratico : a troubled beginning / Chris Hanretty and Alex Wilson -- European elections in Italy and Europe / Enrico Calossi and Luciano Bardi -- The balance of the coalition / Elisabetta De Giorgi -- The G8 in Italy between politics and protest : a case of success? / Massimiliano Andretta and Nicola Chelotti -- Italian foreign policy and the Obama administration : between new opportunities and constraints / Emiliano Alessandri -- The same old film : the never-ending woes of Italy's justice system / Justin O. Frosini -- The Brunetta effect : evaluation and accountability in federal Italy / Mita Marra -- Recalibrating the Italian welfare state : a politics too weak for a necessary policy? / Matteo Jessoula -- Economic policy in a global crisis : did Italy get it right? / Riccardo Rovelli -- Immigration, Islam, and political discourse / Saskia van Genugten -- Eluana Englam's death and the debate over living wills / Nicola Pasini -- Documentary appendix / compiled by Debora Mantovani.

Italy Between Europeanization and Domestic Politics Sergio Fabbrini, Vincent Della Sala, 2004-02 Sartre Today is a tribute to Jean-Paul Sartre on the centenary of his birth (1905-2005). With twenty-two contributions from leading Sartre scholars in North America and the United Kingdom, this volume will greatly enhance Sartre scholarship in the English-speaking world. The diversity of these chapters reflects the depth and breadth of Sartre's wide-ranging engagement with the political and cultural issues of his time. Yet, as these contributions demonstrate, it is clear that Sartre's work still offers an important framework through which to address contemporary issues of a similar magnitude. This applies to Sartre's enduring contribution to philosophy and his conception of violence and terror, as well as analyses of the latest political events in the United States. Other contributions address Sartre's relationship to the contemporary understanding of neuroscience and group therapy, as well as his conception of literature, biography, the theater and cinema. This rich volume will be of great use not only to all Sartre scholars, but also to anyone who has an interest in modern philosophy, politics, psychology, and literature.

Anti-Gender Mobilizations, Religion and Politics Massimo Prearo, 2024-03-12 This book presents an innovative exploration of the rise of political forces that have coalesced around the anti-gender movement, shaping strategies that advocate novel intersections of religion, politicization of gender and sexuality, and radical and populist rejuvenation of conservative ideologies. Through an extensive examination of activist discourses and mobilizations, the author offers a comprehensive political analysis of anti-gender mobilization, encompassing a multidimensional examination of religious, activist, and political opportunity structures. This study unveils three distinct facets characterizing these emerging (Catholic) movements: their relative autonomy from the Church (extra-ecclesiastical), their divergence from conventional religious frameworks (extra-Catholic), and their party-political alignment within the far-right area. The author proposes a new perspective on this burgeoning Catholic cause, contextualizing it within the transnational dynamics underscored by the existing literature. Particularly noteworthy is the scrutiny of internal reshaping within the Italian political Catholicism realm between the 1990s and the 2000s set against the backdrop of the dissolution of the Christian Democratic Party. Through the lens of the Italian landscape, this study extends its analysis to offer broader insights into the contemporary political uses of religion within democracies, along with contentious issues arising from gender and sexuality debates, transcending the confines of the Italian context. This book holds significant relevance for scholars and students engaged in gender studies, religious studies, social movements, populism, political science, political sociology, political history, and Italian studies.

The Politics of Italy James Newell, 2010-01-28 This innovative text offers a fresh approach to Italian politics and society, providing insight into subjects ranging from parliament to corruption and the Mafia. Using clear and simple language, its incisive analysis helps readers to see through common Italian stereotypes by means of a familiar comparative approach.

Governing Fear Gianfranco Baldini, Anna Cento Bull, 2009 In 2008, Silvio Berlusconi returned to power — thanks to a decisive electoral victory — to head a slimmer coalition whose cabinet consisted of members very close to him. The year began with the garbage crisis in Naples and ended in a climate dominated by economic uncertainty. In between some unexpected events happened: during the administrative elections, held with the general elections in April, the right in Rome claimed many victories; for the first time ever, a woman, Emma Marcegaglia, was elected President of Confindustria; and the Alitalia airline had to be rescued from the brink of economic collapse. For consecutive months, opinion polls gave Berlusconi an unprecedented level of popular support; those polled attributed their approval to either his ‘decisionism’ or to what they viewed as a successful strategy of continual announcements. Others pointed to the executive’s success in ‘governing the fears’ of Italians, which was helped by a change of register in the way the media dealt with issues of security. This volume shows that the politics of vetoes, which characterised the previous center-left government, could not conceal the structural, economic and social problems that still need to be resolved, a situation not helped by the fact that the opposition parties were still unable to develop an effective political strategy by yearend. With the contribution of Italian and international experts, the volume also addresses the issues of the difficult integration of immigrants, the mismanagement of public health and the reform of the education.

Modernisierungsfaktor Region Alexander Grasse, 2015-02-27 Alexander Grasse analysiert die voranschreitende Föderalisierung als Kernelement des umfangreichen Transformationsprozesses, in dem sich Italien seit Anfang der 1990er Jahre befindet. Er zeigt anhand empirischer Untersuchungen sowie in vergleichender Perspektive die bislang unterschätzte Innovationskraft der italienischen Regionen auf und legt unabhängig vom Fall Italien neue Steuerungsmöglichkeiten politischer Akteure für die Regionalentwicklung offen. Dabei geht es insbesondere um die Verbindung von institutionellen Reformen, Netzwerkpolitiken, territorialer Identität und Kultur sowie um die daraus resultierenden ökonomischen Effekte.
