Staatsbürgerschaft - wie werden aus Schwarzen Deutsche? Emmanuel Ndahayo, 2020-10-31 Welche Bedeutung hat die Staatsbürgerschaft für Schwarze Deutsche? Emmanuel Ndahayo liefert mit seiner Studie einen wichtigen Beitrag zur Erforschung sozialer Ungleichheit und gesellschaftlicher Teilhabe im Kontext von Migration und Eingliederungsprozessen, die in besonderem Maße von Rassismus, (post-)kolonialistischen Ansichten und fragilen Inklusionsformen betroffen sind. Die Analyse der sozialen Lage von eingebürgerten Deutschen afrikanischer Herkunft schließt eine Forschungslücke. Die empirische Untersuchung mit Hilfe qualitativer Interviews bietet daher wichtige Erkenntnisse nicht nur für die Sozialwissenschaft, sondern auch für Praktiker*innen in der Integrationspolitik.

Storytelling in the Digital World Anna De Fina, Sabina Perrino, 2019-06-15 Storytelling in the Digital World explores new, emerging narrative practices as they are enacted on digital platforms such as Amazon, Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube. Contributors' online ethnographies investigate a wide range of themes including the nature of processes of transformation and recontextualization of offline events into digital narratives; the effects of digital anonymity and pseudonymity on narrative practices; the strategies through which virtual communities discursively work together to solidify and negotiate their sociocultural identities; the tensions between the affordances that characterize different online media and the communicative needs of users; the structures and modes in which virtual users construct and enact participatory practices in these environments; and the significance of different spatiotemporal dimensions in the encoding, sharing and appreciation of stories. More generally, the volume engages with some of the theoretical and methodological challenges that the growing presence of digital technologies and media poses to narrative analysis. Die Kraft der Demokratie Roger de Weck, 2020-03-08 Seit Corona und dem Trump-Fiasko wirken die zerstrittenen Reaktionäre wie lauter Verlierer und Versager, so auch die AfD. Jetzt ist die Stunde der Fortschrittsoptimisten: Nutzen die Grünen und alle Schrittmacher einer ökosozialen Demokratie ihre Chance? Roger de Wecks preisgekröntes Buch schafft Zuversicht - und Übersicht: Es zerlegt die Argumente der autoritären Populisten in ihrem Kulturkampf wider die offene Gesellschaft. Im deutschen Wahljahr skizziert es, wie eine liberale Demokratie des Ausgleichs von Natur und Mensch, Arm und Reich, Frau und Mann, Schwarz und Weiß aussehen könnte: gestaltungskräftig, auf der Höhe des digital-ökologischen 21. Jahrhunderts. Denn die Natur, sagt de Weck, muss zur Teilnehmerin an der Demokratie werden.

Gestrandet im "Paradies" Jeanne-Marie Sindani,2018-07-04 Als Asylsozialberaterin der Caritas in der Erstaufnahmeeinrichtung in Fürstenfeldbruck ist die Autorin mit der tragischen Verfassung der Menschen konfrontiert, die vor Krieg, Terror, Gewalt und Perspektivlosigkeit in ihrem Land geflohen sind. Die Geflüchteten aus dem Vorderen Orient, Zentralasien und Afrika beschreiben die Gefahren in ihrem Heimatland und auf der Flucht. Diesen individuellen Berichten stellt die Autorin eine Analyse der Lage in den Herkunftsländern, der Fluchtursachen und Berichte von Menschenrechts- und Hilfsorganisationen gegenüber. Schließlich zeigt sie auf, wie die Fluchtursachen bekämpft werden könnten und wie Kirche und Caritas sich für Flüchtlinge einsetzen. Das Buch möchte überdies einen Beitrag zum Verständnis und zur Empathie für die nach Deutschland geflüchteten Menschen leisten.

Interkulturelles Lernen im Italienischunterricht Tiberio Snaidero,2017-02-06 Was ist das Besondere des interkulturellen Lernens im Italienischunterricht? Die Tatsache, dass die Schülerinnen und Schüler eine Sprache lernen, die sich im Wesentlichen auf ein einziges Land bezieht, dessen Gesellschaft über eine homogene kognitive Basis verfügt. Tiberio Snaidero analysiert Lehrwerke sowie Schulverordnungen, unterbreitet innovative unterrichtspraktische Vorschläge und präsentiert schließlich einen Entwurf für interkulturelles, kommunikatives und mehrsprachiges Lernen im Italienischunterricht der gymnasialen Oberstufe. Er bestimmt dabei Prinzipien und Kriterien für die Auswahl passender Inhalte und gestaltet kompetenzorientierte Lernaufgaben, deren Hauptziel die Förderung der interkulturellen kommunikativen Kompetenz ist. Das Ergebnis ist praxiserprobte Fachdidaktik, wie sie sich Italienischlehrer wünschen.

Migrantinnen in der Krise des Care-Modells am Beispiel Italiens Luisa Talamini,2017-04-03 Seit Ende der 1990er Jahre wird in Italien eine stetig zunehmende Anzahl von weiblichen Migrantinnen für die häusliche Pflege der älteren Generationen angestellt. Das sogenannte Migrantin in der Familie-Care-Modell hat sich in diesem Land so verbreitet, wie nirgendwo anders innerhalb der europäischen Grenzen. Warum hat sich dieses Care-Modell in Italien entwickelt und etabliert? Welche Faktoren haben zu seiner Verbreitung beigetragen? Um diese Kernfragen zu beantworten, werden drei zentrale Elemente beleuchtet: Geschlechter-, Care- und Migrationsregime. Gleichzeitig wirft die Autorin einen Blick auf die aktuellen Entwicklungen, um herauszufinden, inwieweit und inwiefern sich die ökonomische Krise auf dieses Care-Modell ausgewirkt hat. Die Autorin setzt sich mit der Wechselbeziehung zwischen staatlicher und normativer Ebene bei der Entstehung und der Erhaltung von diesem Care-Modell auseinander und liefert eine Analyse der jüngsten Geschlechter-, Sozial- und Migrationspolitiken und Praxen bzgl. einer spezifischen Form der Care-Arbeit - die Pflege älterer, hilfsbedürftiger Familienangehörigen - in Italien. Hierbei werden die Unterdrückungsmechanismen hinter der Verbreitung dieses Modells, die auf der institutionellen Ebene in Gang gesetzt, aufrechterhalten und normativ untermauert werden, sichtbar gemacht.

Die problematische Neuerfindung der italienischen Rechten Markus K. Grimm, 2016-02-18 Markus K. Grimm liefert eine fundierte politische Einordnung der Parteien und Repräsentanten der italienischen Rechten seit 1994 und entwirft ein Modell zur Untersuchung der Veränderung von bestehenden extremen Parteien in Parteiensystemen. In dieser archetypischen Fallstudie, einer historischen Längsschnittuntersuchung des rechten Parteienspektrums, werden am Beispiel der Alleanza Nazionale (AN) Kriterien herausgearbeitet und erprobt, anhand derer auch Entwicklungen in anderen Parteiensystemen analysiert werden können. Die radikale Veränderung der politischen Landschaft in Italien zeigt deutlicher als in anderen Ländern, welche Möglichkeitsräume sich dadurch Parteien des politischen Randes eröffnen. Die AN steht dabei idealtypisch für den Versuch der Orientierung in die politische Mitte.

Black Spaces Heather Merrill, 2018-05-25 Black Spaces examines how space and place are racialized, and the impacts on everyday experiences among African Italians, immigrants, and refugees. It explores the deeply intertwined histories of Africa and Europe, and how people of African descent negotiate, contest, and live with anti-blackness in Italy. The vast majority of people crossing the Mediterranean into Europe are from West Africa and the Horn of Africa. Their passage is part of the legacy of Italian and broader European engagement in colonial projects. This largely forgotten history corresponds with an ongoing effort to erase them from the Italian social landscape on arrival. Black Spaces examines these racialized spaces by blending a critical geographical approach to place and space with Afro-Pessimist and critical race perspectives on the lived experiences of Blackness and anti-blackness in Italy.

Discourse Analysis Beyond the Speech Event Stanton Wortham, Angela Reyes, 2020-11-29 In its first edition, winner of the 2016 Edward Sapir Book Prize from the Society for Linguistic Anthropology of the American Anthropological Association Discourse Analysis Beyond the Speech Event introduces a new approach to discourse analysis. In this innovative work, Wortham and Reyes argue that discourse analysts should look beyond fixed speech events and consider the development of discourses over time. Drawing on theories and methods from linguistic anthropology and related fields, this book is the first to present a systematic methodological approach to conducting discourse analysis of linked events, allowing researchers to understand not only individual events but also the patterns that emerge across them. This new edition: Draws on theories and methods from linguistic anthropology and related fields; Presents the first systematic methodological approach to doing discourse analysis of linked events; Provides easy-to-use tools and techniques for analyzing discourse both within and across events; Offers transparent procedures and clear illustrations to show how the approach can be applied to analyze three types of data: ethnographic, archival, and new media; Includes a new chapter focusing on the discourse analysis of contemporary nationalist new media data. Updated and revised for the second edition, this book is essential reading for advanced students and researchers working in the area of discourse analysis.

Diasporas, Cultures of Mobilities, 'Race' 3 Collectif, 2021-10-26 Reflecting current debates in the intersecting fields of African American Studies and African Diaspora, these critical essays and case studies explore the articulation between the fluctuating concepts of 'race' and Diaspora and the negotiations of identities across differences. They examine in turn the developments of diasporic black (inter)nationalism, new discourses on 'postraciality' and 'postblackness', race consciousness among African American soldiers, expatriation and re-diasporization. The acknowledgement of a rejection of Africanness in societies such as the Emirates, Morocco or the Dominican Republic dialogues with examinations of artwork through the lenses of a diasporic consciousness and analyses of literary texts that celebrate internationalism or subvert the notion of 'race'. James Baldwin thus converses with Percival Everett.

Europe's Crises Manuel Castells, Olivier Bouin, Joao Caraça, Gustavo Cardoso, John Thompson, Michel Wieviorka, 2018-03-16 Today, the European Union is facing a crisis as serious as anything it has experienced since its origins more than half a century ago. What makes this so serious is that it is not a single crisis but rather multiple crises – the euro crisis, the migration/refugee crisis, Brexit, etc. – that overlap and reinforce one another, creating a cumulative array of challenges that threatens the very survival of the EU. For the first time in its history, there is a real risk that the EU could break up. This volume brings together sociologists, economists and political scientists from around Europe to shed light on how the EU got into this predicament. It argues that the multiple crises that have plagued the European Union in the last decade stem to a large extent from flaws in its construction and that these flaws are consequences of the political processes that led to the formation of the EU – in other words, the decisions that made possible the development of the EU created the conditions for the multiple crises it experiences today. This timely and wide-ranging book on one of the most important issues of our time will be of great interest to students and scholars in the social sciences, to politicians and policy-makers and to anyone concerned with Europe and its future.

The Reason of Schooling Thomas S. Popkewitz, 2014-09-04 Problematizing the reason of schooling as historical and political, in this book leading international and interdisciplinary scholars challenge the common sense of schooling and the relation of society, education, and curriculum studies. Examining the limits of contemporary notions of power and schooling, the argument is that the principles that order school subjects, the curriculum, and teaching reforms are historical practices that govern what is thought, acted on, and talked about. Highlighting the dynamics of social exclusion, the normalizing of people through curriculum, and questions of social inclusion, The Reason of Schooling underscores the urgency for rethinking curriculum research.

International Political Sociology Tugba Basaran, Didier Bigo, Emmanuel-Pierre Guittet, R. B. J. Walker, 2016-07-22 This book presents an overview and evaluation of contemporary research in international political sociology (IPS). Bringing together leading scholars from many disciplines and diverse geographical backgrounds, it provides unprecedented coverage of the key concepts and research through which IPS has opened up new ways of thinking about international relations. It also considers some of the consequences of such innovations for established forms of social and political analysis. It thus takes the reader on an intellectual journey engaging with questions about boundaries and limits among the many interrelated worlds in which we now live, the ways we conceptualise them, and how we continually reshape boundaries of identities, spaces, authorities and disciplinary knowledge. The volume is organized three sections: Lines, Intersections and Directions. The first section examines some influences that led to the formation of the project of IPS and how it has opened up avenues of research beyond the limits of an international relations discipline shaped within political science. The second section explores some key concepts as well as a series of heated discussions about power and authority, practices and governmentality, performativity and reflexivity. The third section explores some of the transversal topics of research that have been pursued within IPS, including inequality, migration, citizenship, the effect of technology on practices of security, the role of experts and expertise, data-driven surveillance, and the relation between mobility, power and inequality. This book will be an essential source of reference for students and across the social sciences.

The Black Migrant Athlete Munene Mwaniki, 2017-09-01 The popularity and globalization of sport have led to an ever-increasing migration of black athletes from the global South to the United States and Western Europe. While the hegemonic ideology surrounding sport is that it brings diverse people together and ameliorates social divisions, sociologists of sport have shown this to be a gross simplification. Instead, sport and its narratives often reinforce and re-create stereotypes and social boundaries, especially regarding race and the prowess and the position of the black athlete. Because sport is a contested terrain for maintaining and challenging racial norms and boundaries, the black athlete has always impacted popular (white) perceptions of blackness in a global manner. The Black Migrant Athlete analyzes the construction of race in Western societies through a study of the black African migrant athlete. Munene Franjo Mwaniki presents ten black African migrant athletes as a conceptual starting point to interrogate the nuances of white supremacy and of the migrant and immigrant experience with a global perspective. By using celebrity athletes such as Hakeem Olajuwon, Dikembe Mutombo, and Catherine Ndereba as entry points into a global discourse, Mwaniki explores how these athletes are wrapped in social and cultural meanings by predominately white-owned and -dominated media organizations. Drawing from discourse analysis and cultural studies, Mwaniki examines the various power relations via media texts regarding race, gender, sexuality, class, and nationality.

The New Faces of Fascism Enzo Traverso, 2019-01-29 What is fascism in the twenty first century? What does Fascism mean at the beginning of the twenty-first century? When we pronounce this word, our memory goes back to the years between the two world wars and envisions a dark landscape of violence, dictatorships, and genocide. These images spontaneously surface in the face of the rise of radical right, racism, xenophobia, islamophobia and terrorism, the last of which is often depicted as a form of Islamic fascism. Beyond some superficial analogies, however, all these contemporary tendencies reveal many differences from historical fascism, probably greater than their affinities. Paradoxically, the fear of terrorism nourishes the populist and racist rights, with Marine Le Pen in France or Donald Trump in the US claiming to be the most effective ramparts against Jihadist fascism. But since fascism was a product of imperialism, can we define as fascist a terrorist movement whose main target is Western domination? Disentangling these contradictory threads, Enzo Traverso's historical gaze helps to decipher the enigmas of the present. He suggests the concept of post-fascism--a hybrid phenomenon, neither the reproduction of old fascism nor something completely different--to define a set of heterogeneous and transitional movements, suspended between an accomplished past still haunting our memories and an unknown future.
