Unione europea. Commissione Europea, COM(2020) 565 final ,2020 La presente Comunicazione contiene il Piano d'azione dell'Unione europea contro il razzismo per il periodo 2020-2025. Il Piano definisce una serie di misure volte ad intensificare gli interventi, ad aiutare le persone appartenenti a minoranze razziali o etniche a far sentire la loro voce e a riunire i soggetti interessati a tutti i livelli in uno sforzo comune che miri a contrastare il razzismo in maniera più efficace e a costruire, per tutti, una vita libera dal razzismo e dalle discriminazioni. Come affermato chiaramente nell'introduzione del testo, l'UE dispone di strumenti giuridici e di una politica generale tali da permetterle di costruire un'Unione dell'uguaglianza, con alcuni ambiti specifici in via di rafforzamento, e la Commissione integrerà questi sforzi settoriali presentando una strategia globale diretta a garantire che la Carta dei diritti fondamentali dell'UE sia effettivamente applicata negli Stati membri e che i diritti in essa sanciti, comprese l'uguaglianza e la non discriminazione, siano una realtà per tutti. Per quanto concerne il tema più specifico dell'infanzia e dell'adolescenza, nel testo si afferma che nel 2021 la Commissione presenterà una garanzia per l'infanzia volta ad assicurare una migliore inclusione sociale di tutti i minori in stato di necessità e a garantire loro l'accesso ai servizi chiave. Inoltre, si ribadisce che ai minori di qualsiasi razza o origine etnica debba essere garantito un pari accesso all'istruzione e che gli insegnanti debbano essere formati affinché possano lavorare al meglio con tutti ed essere sensibili alle esigenze degli alunni provenienti da contesti diversi. L'uguaglianza, il rispetto e l'inclusione sono dei valori ai quali i minori dovrebbero essere educati fin da subito all'interno delle scuole, affinché siano poi in grado di promuoverli sia tra i loro pari che nelle rispettive comunità di appartenenza.
