Europe's Last Chance Guy Verhofstadt, 2017-01-03 In the heart of Europe's current crisis, one of the continent's foremost statesmen issues a clarion call to radically remake the European Union in the mold of the United States' own federal government. Europe is caught in its greatest crisis since the Second World War. The catalog of ills seems endless: an economic crisis spread through most of Europe's Mediterranean tier that has crippled Greece and driven a wedge between northern and southern Europe; terrorist attacks in Paris, Cologne, Brussels, and Nice; growing aggression from Russia in Ukraine and the Baltic states; and refugees escaping war-torn neighbors. The European Union's inability to handle any of these disasters was a driving factor in Great Britain voting to leave, and others may soon follow. The result won't just be a continent in turmoil, but also a serious threat to American and British security—the Atlantic, let alone the Channel, simply isn't big enough to keep European troubles in Europe. For everyone's sake, Europe must survive. The question is how. In Europe's Last Chance, Guy Verhofstadt—former prime minister of Belgium and current leader of the liberal faction in the European Parliament—provides the essential framework for understanding Europe today, laying bare the absurdity of a system in which each member state can veto legislation, opt in or out of the Euro, or close borders on a whim. But Verhofstadt does not just indict the European Union, he also offers a powerful vision for how the continent can change for the better. The key, argues Verhofstadt, is to reform the European Union along the lines of America's federal government: a United States of Europe strong enough to stand with the United States of America in making a better, safer world. A visionary book from one of today's luminaries of European leadership, Europe's Last Chance is a clarion call to save the European Union, one of the world's greatest chances for peace and prosperity.

The Financial Crisis Guy Verhofstadt, 2009 In his latest book Guy Verhofstadt, former Belgian Prime Minister, provides an analysis of how the European Union can tackle the current economic and financial crisis. He pleads for more European integration and less protectionism. In addition Verhofstadt argues that the issuing of Euro bonds by the European Investment Bank is necessary. According to Verhofstadt the current crisis is comparable with the recent crisis in Japan where the housing market was overheated, the population was aging and problems with banks arose. In spite of 12 recovery plans the Japanese economy never fully recovered. Europe should prevent such a scenario, but at the moment Member States are presenting a range of national recovery plans without much coordination. They also tend to return to protectionist reflexes.

The United States of Europe Guy Verhofstadt,2006-08-22 France and the Netherlands have said no to the European Constitutional Treaty. In addition to domestic political motives, contradictory fears were in play. Some thought the Treaty brought with it too much Europe. Some thought it did not bring enough Europe. Others, particularly in the Netherlands, were protesting against the supposed cost of Europe. Yet others thought that the European Union's enlargement has gone ahead much too quickly. What is the next step? The Belgian Prime Minister, Guy Verhofstadt does not mince his words. He wishes to create a United States of Europe, with all member states of the European Union participating if possible, with a group of pioneers if necessary. His book is required reading for anyone who cares about Europe.

Burgermanifest ,1991

Für Europa! Daniel Cohn-Bendit, Guy Verhofstadt, 2012 Bis zum Herbst hat Europa Zeit: Wenn bis dahin kein Weg aus der Schuldenkrise gefunden wird, kollabiert der Euro-Raum. Starr vor Schreck blickt die Öffentlichkeit in einen Abgrund, während die Stimmen derer lauter werden, die das Projekt der europäischen Integration schon immer bekämpft haben. In dieser dramatischen Lage melden sich zwei überzeugte Europäer zu Wort: Nicht der Abschied von der europäischen Integration wird uns retten, vielmehr brauchen wir ein größeres, stärkeres, demokratischeres Europa. Die einzelnen Nationalstaaten sind viel zu schwach, um im globalen Wettbewerb zu bestehen. Gerade diese Krise zeigt, wie nötig wir eine starke EU brauchen: Um die Bürger vor der Willkür der Spekulanten zu schützen, die schon längst keine Staatsgrenzen mehr kennen. In einem leidenschaftlichen Manifest engagieren sich Cohn-Bendit und Verhofstadt für ein neues, starkes Europa, das sie anschliessend mit Jean Quatremer diskutieren.-- Herausgeber.

The European Way of Life Bertelsmann Stiftung, 2011-08-19 In The European Way of Life the Bertelsmann Stiftung looks back at what the European Union has already achieved, and sets its sights on the future. What are the challenges to which European policymaking will have to rise in the years ahead? How can the European project be given a new lease of life? Europeans tend to be rather critical of the EU, but the fact of the matter is that the EU member states will have to work together more closely if Europe wishes to get its message across on the global stage. The European Way of Life assembles some of the most important analyses produced by the Bertelsmann Stiftung's European projects. The topics range from the euro to the President of the EU, and from the EU's relationship with Russia to the Union for the Mediterranean. In three chapters devoted to Europe's democracy, economy and values, the experts at the Bertelsmann Stiftung come up with a host of stimulating ideas and make a number of specific recommendations. Guest authors Joschka Fischer, Wolfgang Schäuble and Guy Verhofstadt reveal their thoughts about the European Union, and make a point of emphasizing that crises have always been turning points and have repeatedly presented new opportunities, especially in the EU. The European Way of Life wishes to engage in a dialogue with both normal EU citizens who are interested in these topics, and with wellinformed experts. The articles include a number of informative charts and diagrams.

The EU - The Liberal Empire? Harry Cottam,2020-04-23 Guy Verhofstadt, a leading Belgian MEP and enthusiast for the EU, has described it as a “liberal empire.” In his book, Harry asks whether, and to what extent this is true, and, if it is an empire, of what and for whom? With any organisation, however big and altruistic its stated principles and intentions might be, the author believes there is always someone running it behind the scenes and he has concluded that one country, Germany, is using the EU as a fig-leaf to hide and legitimise its domination of the rest of Europe. In his book, Harry Cottam examines whether or not the EU is a liberal empire or designed to be controlled by the few and sets out his research which formed his belief and explains in detail how it has been achieved.

Blind Man's Brexit Edward Stourton,Lode Desmet,2019-09-05 'Essential reading for anyone anxious to understand the background to the Brexit debate' Tablet With all the political infighting in British politics over Brexit dominating the news cycle, we almost forgot who we were negotiating with. Now, in Blind Man's Brexit, we get to see and hear exactly what was going on in the corridors of power in Brussels, and how the EU comprehensively outmanoeuvred the UK government. When Lode Desmet met Guy Verhofstadt, the European Parliament's representative on Brexit, about filming a fly-on-the-wall documentary on the negotiations, he could never have imagined the unique access he would be granted and the extraordinary story that he would end up filming. As the cameras rolled, Lode sat in on private conversations with chief negotiator Michel Barnier and saw first hand how Theresa May's government's negotiating positions were knocked back time after time. The results were aired in the BBC documentary series Brexit: Behind Closed Doors. Written with distinguished political commentator Edward Stourton, who also provides a British perspective on events, Blind Man's Brexit goes beyond the documentary to reveal a staggering and unprecedented failure of diplomacy on one side and contrasts the very clearly defined aims and goals of the EU side. Many books have attempted to tell the story of what happened, but this one has completely unfiltered access to events as viewed by the EU, and shows exactly why, how and where the Brexit negotiations went so spectacularly wrong, resulting in our departure from the EU being delayed beyond 29 March 2019 as the UK was left in limbo and its political system in disarray.

Das Europäische Parlament Doris Dialer,2016-09-29 In einem jahrzehntelangen Prozess hat sich das Europäische Parlament von einer beratenden Einrichtung zu einem Mitgestalter europäischer Politik entwickelt. Heute besitzt es sowohl innerhalb der Union als auch als globaler Akteur politisches Gewicht. Diese Erfolgsgeschichte wird von den europäischen Bürgerinnen und Bürgern nur beschränkt wahrgenommen, wie die geringe Beteiligung an den Wahlen zum Europäischen Parlament zeigt. Das vorliegende Buch beantwortet zentrale Fragen: Wie funktioniert diese demokratisch legitimierte Institution? Was bedeutet ihr Machtzuwachs konkret? Welche weiteren Entwicklungen können erwartet werden?

For Europe Guy Verhofstadt,Daniel Cohn-Bendit,2012-09-20 Europe is in crisis. How did we get here? What didn't work? Faced with such an emergency, are the euro zone states not creating an undemocratic monster? Is euroscepticism not reactionary? Could a federation of 27 actually work? This book is a call. A wake up call directed to every citizen. It is an exercise in lucidity that encourages reflection. And it is also an alarm bell. The tone is frank, passionate. The arguments hard hitting: Europe must once and for all get rid of the navel gazing of its nation-states. A radical revolution is needed. A large European revolution. And a European federal Union must emerge. A Union that enables Europe to participate in the postnational world of tomorrow. By laziness, cowardice and lack of vision, too many of our Heads of State and Government prefer not to see what is at stake. Let's wake them up. Let's confront them with their impotence. And give them no respite until they have taken the European way, the way to a Europe of the future, towards a Europe for Europeans. The era of empty summits and statements is over. Now is the time for action.

Inside the Arab Revolution Koert Debeuf,2014-04-12 This is not an Arab Spring. This is an Arab Revolution of the magnitude of the French Revolution. Historian, political observer and opinion-maker Koert Debeuf draws this conclusion from three years of living and working in the heart of the Arab world. Having travelled extensively in Egypt, Syria, Libya, Tunisia, Jordan, Palestine and Turkey, he saw from the first row history unfolding. From Tahrir Square to Taksim Square, between teargas, bullets and bombs. This book gives unique insight into the real fights and frustrations of the Arab Revolution. In this compilation of blogs, articles and essays the reader begins to understand the complex realities and ideas behind the revolutions from Tunisia to Turkey. Some of the pieces even influenced Arab and international politics. In a foreword, Guy Verhofstadt, president of the Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe and former prime minister of Belgium (1999-2008), sets out a new vision of European cooperation with the Arab world.

Die neue Grundsatzdebatte über die Finalität der europäischen Integration Eberhard Bresch,2006

Gli Stati Uniti d'Europa Guy Verhofstadt,2014-06-05T00:00:00+02:00 In questo pamphlet Guy Verhofstadt, primo ministro belga, presenta in modo chiaro e dettagliato una proposta di rielaborazione politica dell'Unione Europea: la costituzione di un nocciolo forte e omogeneo degli "Stati Uniti d'Europa" a capo di una più ampia confederazione, l'"Organizzazione degli Stati europei". Gli Stati uniti d'Europa dovrebbero essere formati da quelli, fra gli Stati membri, che più degli altri sono pronti a compiere passi in avanti in ambito economico, politico, decisionale. Secondo Verhofstadt, aspettare che tutti gli Stati aderiscano alle decisioni più avanzate è un meccanismo che rallenta la crescita e la competitività europea, rivelandosi, a lungo andare, controproducente. L'Europa si trova oggi a dialogare non solo con gli Stati Uniti, superpotenza incontrastata dell'ultimo quindicennio, ma con potenze orientali in ascesa come il Giappone, l'India e la Cina. Secondo il primo ministro belga, per uscire dalla subalternità bisogna innanzitutto risolvere i dubbi e le incertezze dei cittadini attraverso l'eliminazione del cosiddetto "eurogergo", e soprattutto attraverso l'attuazione di strategie che tendano a creare stabilità e uniformità: la creazione di un codice interno di convergenza economica, la riforma del sistema fiscale, lo sviluppo di una nuova ondata tecnologica, la designazione di un portavoce unico per la politica estera. Gli Stati Uniti d'Europa è un pamphlet semplice nello stile e articolato nelle argomentazioni, che attraverso ricostruzioni storiche e l'elaborazione di una solida proposta si rivolge sia a chi ha sempre creduto nel progetto dell'Unione europea sia a chi, appartenendo a una generazione più giovane, l'ha vissuto come un fatto compiuto ma può scoprirne, in queste pagine, insospettite potenzialità. «Guy Verhofstadt è uno dei leader europei a cui tutti coloro che credono nel processo d'integrazione e vogliono veramente rilanciarlo devono guardare». dalla prefazione di Giuliano Amato e Romano Prodi

Europe for Growth Jutta Haug, 2011 The system for financing the EU today is on its last legs. Indeed, with the EU budget being predominantly financed by national contributions, member states attach great importance to what they get in return, which in the end affects the European principle of solidarity and makes every budgetary negotiation a potential arena for political blockage. The economic and financial crisis, with its corresponding increase in the public deficit of member states, has unfortunately worsened the situation. Fully funding the European Union with own resources is the only way to put an end to the fair return approach and to make the necessary changes to EU spending that would provide it with the financial means equal to its needs and allow it to face the challenges of the future. On the eve of the presentation of a new proposal for own resources announced by the European Commission, Jutta Haug, Alain Lamassoure and Guy Verhofstadt, Members of the European Parliament belonging to three different political groups, have brought together their views and present this report as their contribution to the debate. Economists Daniel Gros and Paul De Grauwe of CEPS and Gaëtane Ricard-Nihoul and Eulalia Rubio of Notre Europe have collaborated with them in this important project. They demonstrate in this report that fully financing an EU budget of the size it is today with genuine own resources is not a dream but that such a change is feasible, provided that the political will to reform the current system can be summoned. Moreover, they find that it would not infringe on the member states' fiscal sovereignty. On the contrary, it would reinforce the link between the European Union and its citizens, putting an end to member states' tendency to calculate their net returns and possibly even enabling them to make cuts to their public expenditure. Finally, such a reform would represent a return to the spirit and the letter of the Treaty of Rome, which contained a clear aspiration for financial autonomy and which prevailed until the end of the 1980s.--

Publisher description.

Reshaping EU-US Relations Nicole Gnesotto, 2012 The European Union and the United States are major players in the globalised world order: often they determine its course, sometimes they are adversely impacted and above all they are being profoundly transformed by its effects. But in the ten years since 2000, the foundations of American power (military force, technological excellence, economic success) have been severely shaken, as have the certainties of the European project (continuous prosperity, citizen support, the attraction of the European model). As a result, Euro-American relations can no longer be approached and practiced in the way they were for more than half a century. A high-level European reflection group comprising former Ministers and Heads of Government was brought together by Notre Europe to review the future of the Euro-American partnership. It undertook a sober examination of the changes under way in the world and their effects on the European Union and the United States. Above all, the group proposes a new approach based on renunciation of EU national and US imperial illusions that could enable the Euro-American partnership to become a springboard for a global partnership. The members of the high level task force are: Romano Prodi (co-chair), former President of the European Commission and former Prime Minister of Italy Guy Verhofstadt (co-chair), former Prime Minister of Belgium Jerzy Buzek, President of the European Parliament, former Prime Minister of Poland Étienne Davignon, former Vice-President of the European Commission Jacques Delors, former President of the European Commission Joschka Fischer, former German foreign minister Paavo Lipponen, former Prime Minister of Finland Tommaso Padoa-Schioppa, President of Notre Europe, former Minister of Finances of Italy.

Transit 44. Europäische Revue Claus Offe, Michael Sandel, Jacques Rupnik, 2014-01-09 Während sich in den letzten drei Jahrzehnten im Rest der Welt mehr Menschen als je zuvor an demokratischen Wahlen beteiligten, hat in vielen europäischen Ländern die Mehrheit der Bevölkerung den Glauben daran verloren, mit ihrer Stimme etwas bewirken zu können. Hier sinkt die Wahlbeteiligung seit langem, vor allem bei den Unterschichten - eine Entwicklung, die den Zusammenhalt der Gesellschaft gefährdet. Die Beiträge in diesem Heft beschäftigen sich mit der gegenwärtigen Malaise der Demokratie, sie versuchen, Diagnosen zu stellen und machen Therapieansätze.

Le mal européen Guy Verhofstadt, 2016-05-12 A partir de ses rencontres avec Bush, Blair et Poutine, Guy Verhofstadt démontre de manière convaincante que l'Europe s'est égarée. Un récit impitoyable sur la dérive du projet européen, autrefois si ambitieux et devenu un borbier institutionnel. L'Europe se considère toujours comme une référence morale mondiale alors que la Méditerranée s'est transformée en cimetière marin et que nous ne parvenons pas à surmonter nos échecs économiques. Le monde nous regarde avec pitié. L'Europe fait preuve d'une étroitesse d'esprit fragmentée et déclinée en 28 itérations nationales, ironise le New York Times. Pour Guy Verhofstadt la solution consiste, non pas à bâtir un super-Etat européen, mais à faire un pas décisif vers une Europe plus efficace et plus démocratique. Il revendique l'héritage des Pères fondateurs et administre une cure de jouvence à une Constitution européenne oubliée, datant de 1953. Un récit impitoyable sur la dérive du projet européen, autrefois si ambitieux et devenu un borbier institutionnel.
