La donna e la cultura Marianne Weber, 2018-04-23 Nel saggio, qui tradotto per la prima volta in italiano, la Weber si pone in aperta critica con Georg Simmel e con una determinata tradizione filosofica che guarda al genere femminile esclusivamente da una prospettiva esistenzialista. Nel restituire alla donna dignità di analisi sociologica, la Weber mostra come il cuore del problema sta in come il pensiero filosofico e sociologico dominante ha fatto corrispondere cultura oggettiva e cultura soggettiva a due spazi sociali contrapposti, "pubblico" e "privato", relegando la cultura femminile nello spazio ristretto dell'ambito domestico.

La partecipazione femminile al giornalismo politico-letterario Maria Cecilia Vignuzzi, 2008 By examining seven major reviews (the French Revue des deux mondes, the Revue de Paris and the Nouvelle Revue; the Italian Nuova Antologia, the Rassegna Nazionale, the Rivista europea and the Revue internationale) this thesis investigates from a comparative and gendered perspective the female participation in high quality journalism in Italy and France between the 1870s and the First World War. The aim is to show that despite some obvious limitations, women found room in that apparently very 'male' space of culture and emerged on a considerable scale in all walks of the profession. Many women regularly published on high quality reviews. Some of them even rose to high positions on editorial boards. With the exception of a few fields of knowledge - albeit fundamental to the journals' overall structure - such as economics, finance, and matters to do with the army and the colonies, women contributors covered nearly all the range of subjects contained in these periodicals: not only fiction, but also literary criticism, travelogues, politics and others. Quality and cultural journals offered women writers a considerable space of entering the public sphere, as both authors and readers. It may thus be construed on a dual plane: as an opportunity for women writers to join the new professional ranks of modern publishing, but also as an important terrain for acknowledgement of their standing as intellectuals.
